African American Planning Commission, Inc.

DONATION BY MAIL FORM: Thank you for your interest in supporting the work of the African American Planning Commission. We take seriously our responsibility to our donors, our contributors, and to those who count on our help to be wise stewards of funds entrusted to us.

Please know that each gift made to the African American Planning Commission helps defray costs associated with running a not-for-profit, social service organization. Some of our expenses include: Affordable housing development, social support services, case management services, child care services, employment creation opportunities, and much more. If you have become a fan of our organization, please consider becoming a supporter. Without your generosity, we would not be around today to serve those who need our help the most.
